

For 10 years, Luxury Places SA advises, every year, dozens of clients, mainly foreigner, in their acquisition or a property on Lake Geneva.
We are strengthening the team of our Lausanne office and hire

Two experienced brokers

whose main tasks will be:

- Prospection, taking mandates and the management of a portfolio of properties in a range of prices between chf 1'000'000 and chf 3'000'000 for one position and on the high-end segment for the other one
- The development and management of a portfolio of clients
- The management of our advertising tools and marketing materials
- Monitoring, service and advice to a demanding clientele

To fully succeed in this role and thrive in our team, you must have the following qualities :

- Dynamic and enthusiastic in your work, you will need to show commitment and creativity
- You have a significant sales experience in real estate
- You are fluent in English and French. Fluency in another language is a strong asset
- Catchy and persevering
- Finally, you are of a positive nature and have an outstanding interpersonal skills

Position based in Lausanne

Applications will be treated confidentially and must be sent by email to:

david.colle@luxury-places.ch